Plaintiff,

V.

UNILEVER UNITED STATES, INC.

Defendant.

Case No. 4:20-CV-02777-YGR

PARTIES' STATEMENT ON PROGRESS OF SETTLEMENT NEGOTIATIONS AND REQUEST FOR EXTENSION OF STAY

Assigned to Hon. Yvonne Gonzalez
Rogers

Pursuant to the Joint Stipulation and Order entered November 15, 2023, counsel for Plaintiff Lisa Vizcarra and the class, and counsel for Defendant Unilever United States, Inc. (“Unilever”) (collectively the “Parties”), herein report to the Court on the status of settlement negotiations and request a 60-day extension

1 of the current stay of this case so that the parties may continue to seek resolution.

3 WHEREAS, the Parties have conducted settlement negotiations
4 continuously and in good faith since the entry of the current stay on November 15,
5 2023. On January 17, 2024, the Parties participated in a videoconference
6 mediation session before mediator Peter J. Woodin, of JAMS, at which significant 7 progress was made in narrowing the points of dispute and moving toward convergence on those terms.

8 WHEREAS, in the weeks since that session, the parties have continued to 9 negotiate by telephone and electronic mail, and have made further settlement
10 progress, including tentative agreement on some key terms. The Parties are 11 hopeful that continued discussions may result in a resolution of this matter.

12 NOW, THEREFORE, in view of the above, the Parties stipulate and 13 respectfully request that the Court extend the current stay of this case and continue 14 the hearing currently scheduled for February 23, 2024, for a further 60 days, to 15 permit the Parties to continue progressing toward settlement. The Parties would 16 submit a further report on settlement progress on April 16, 2024, and the hearing
17 would be continued to April 23, 2024, or such date as suits the Court's 18 convenience.
